Your rights may be affected. You should read these papers carefully and discuss them with your attorney, if you have one in this bankruptcy case. (If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one).

If you do not want the court to deny confirmation, or if you want the court to consider your views on the objection, then you and your attorney must:

If you and your attorney do not take this step, the court may decide that you do not oppose the relief sought in the objection and may enter an order granting that relief.
